Wiseman joins Giggs at Salford

Wiseman, now playing for Ryan Giggs Salford United played against Leyton Orient this weekend where they finished level at 1-1. The Gibraltar international has this season dropped divisions now playing in the Vanarama league.

Wiseman has been in the Gibraltar national team although problems with availability saw him miss matches.

Everton flight affected by fog

Everton ladies arrived in Gibraltar on Sunday ahead of their international tournament matches. The Merseyside team had to fly to Malaga after the flight was diverted before it re-fuelled and came to Gibraltar due to fog. Everton play against Atletico Madrid the Spanish league champions in the International friendly tournament hosted in Gibraltar.

Casciario on the move

Both Calderon and Ryan Casciario played their last match for Lincoln Red Imps against New Saints last Thursday.

Calderon bid farewell to Lincoln through social media on Friday just 24 hours after Lincoln were knocked out of the Europa League. He came on as a substitute in the final minutes of the match. This even though it was known that he was departing the club and looked destined at joining St Joseph's.

Ryan Casciario is also reported to have left Lincoln Red Imps and has joined St Joseph's on a one year contract according to social media.

Commenting on the social media reports Casciario said that there would be "further news in the coming days."

On Monday he posted "After nearly three decades playing for Lincoln Red Imps FC my journey has ended with them. I would like to thank everyone who has been involved in my upbringing on and off the field. This club has been an influence in my life since I was five yrs old. I would say that instead of friends I am taking family from this club. I shall remain in the club as I have my son and his team in the Youth system"
